STAT

Thank you for the opportunity to glance over the CIPR studies. One, General Cushman's "Command and Control of Theater Forces: Adequacy," I had previously read in toto and provided comments to the author (good piece of work on the C<sup>3</sup> side--not so good on the intelligence side).

I do not at this point see any direct utility in the documents to the NIC. For the most part, they address policy issues which are not in our domain. It does occur to me that they may be of value to  DDI/EURA/SI.  the NATO security issues shop there to which much of the material pertains.
